Boys Arrested for Alleged Part in Bomb Outrage at Cohn Residence.

Charged with counseling and aiding and abetting David M. McCandless in his attempt to blow up the home of Attorney Jacob S. Cohn early Sunday morning, three boys, eighteen years old, his brother, Roy Smith, sixteen, and Paul Haind, Jr., seventeen, were arrested last night by Detective Sergeants Wiley and Kellum. They were surrendered to the officers by their father, W. H. Haind, of 6 West Third Street, and Paul Haind, of 100 West Third Street. At the Second Police Station they were immediately held for their appearance in court when McCandless' case is called next week. It was said by the detective that arrests of other boys believed to be implicated with McCandless may follow.

The Smith boys and young Haind were members of the club at which, according to McCandless' confession to the police, the bomb was placed on Mr. Cohn's front porch was manufactured.

McCandless is now in the City Jail recovering from an operation for appendicitis performed Thursday night. His condition last night was said to be satisfactory and his recovery was predicted.

So far as is known, there has been no change from the plan of counsel for McCandless to enter a plea of insanity when the case is brought to trial.

RICHMOND GETS
BIG CONVENTION

American Institute of Banking
Decides to Meet Here
Next Year.

Although confronted by heavy odds in its fight to bring the next meeting of the American Institute of Banking to Richmond, a message from the local delegation at Salt Lake City announced last night that its efforts were finally successful, and that the 1913 session of the institute will come to this city. The convention next year will bring visitors to the city from at least one, and probably more, to Richmond. The Richmond delegation, six strong, left for the Utah capital on Friday, August 15. The party was made up of W. T. Finkley, business manager of the Chamber of Commerce, John R. Finkley, president of the city, and four delegates from the Richmond chapter. The institute, as follows: W. W. North, President, National Bank, C. V. Brockman, Vice President, Bank of Commerce, National Bank, and Thomas H. Keesee, of the Merchants' National Bank.

In their effort to land the next convention for this city, the Richmond delegation were opposed by the representatives from Louisville, Ky., and Scranton, Pa. It was over the representatives of these cities that the vote was cast. Six hundred delegates are in attendance at the Salt Lake City meeting. The American Institute of Banking is the largest of its kind in the world. It is a gathering of the leading bankers of the country, who meet to discuss the latest in banking methods and their business.

The local chapter of the institute is one of the strongest in the country. It is headed by the First National Bank, which is headed by the city.

BURGLARS BUSY

Two Reports of Housebreaking Made to Police Yesterday.

Two reports of housebreaking were made to the police yesterday. One report was from a man who said that a burglar had entered his home and stolen a large sum of money. The other report was from a woman who said that a burglar had entered her home and stolen a large sum of money. The police are working to locate the burglars and return the stolen property.

ARRESTED AFTER
TAXICAB CHASE

Jacobini Captures Hanover
Huckster Who Shot Five Times at Negroes in Street.

THEATRE CROWDS SAW RACE

Prisoner Claims That Gang Attempted to Steal Melons
When He Fired.

After he had shot five times into a crowd of negroes, dancing and singing, one, Andrew Allen, twenty-one years old, a Hanover County huckster, last night made a mad dash for liberty in his two-wheeled cart. Wholly losing his mind, he drove east through Leigh Street, turning south at Jefferson. As he clattered along, Broad Street he attracted the attention of Patrolman Jacobini, who, thinking it a runaway, attempted to follow the cart on foot. When one of a crowd of negroes who were also following, yelled at him that the man in the wagon had just shot somebody, Jacobini had reached Grace Street this time and Allen had turned cart. Seeing it would be impossible to pursue further on foot with any hope of capturing the fugitive, the officer stopped a passing taxicab and ordered the driver to overtake the cart. The cab came up with it at first Street and, hearing out, Jacobini promptly arrested Allen.

The chase created intense excitement, occurring at an hour, shortly after a clock, when Broad Street was filled with a crowd of amusement seekers.

Fired Into Crowd.

Allen quickly submitted to arrest, and was taken to the Second Police Station. His wagon and mail bag, which he had the shooting, were also taken to the station. He is now in custody.

The shooting took place at Harrison and Leigh Streets. Allen had been driving his wagon for sale and was being followed by a crowd of negroes. One of them it is alleged, shot at him, and as he attempted to make off with it Allen drew his revolver and fired into the crowd. Five times he shot at the negroes scattered. Arthur Bolling, of 711 Norton Street, who had been under the left car by one of the bullets.

After he had emptied his gun Allen lost no time in gathering up his things and starting on his swift run for liberty. But for the alertness of Jacobini, he would probably have been successful.

Think He Will Recover.

An emergency call for medical aid was put in, and Dr. H. A. Bullock, ambulance surgeon of the city hospital, responded to treat Bolling. He found that the bullet had lodged in the chest and removed the negro to the hospital. It was said that he would probably recover.

Allen, who had been locked up in the Hanover County Jail, was a friend of the negro, who, during the past week, had been in the station in a second car. Believing that the missing revolver might be in his possession, he was ordered down from the vehicle by the police. He was then taken to the station and a revolver was found in his possession. Only one chamber was empty, however. Whether it is the same gun which Allen used is not known. The bullet was locked up on the charge of carrying a concealed weapon.

AUDITOR REFUSES TO ACCEPT MONEY

Finds No Warrant for His Acceptance of Primary Entrance Fees.

CASH NOW GOES BEGGING

New Company of Militia at Strasburg—Reward Offered for Murderers.

In temporary possession of State Treasurer Asher W. Harmon there remains the sum of $2,775, which he is unable to get any more to take. He desires to be rid of it and State Auditor C. Lee Moore won't have it.

Official tender of the sum was made yesterday by the Treasurer to the Auditor, and it was officially refused.

The money represents the primary entrance fees of the various candidates for Congress this year. There is the sum of $275 each from Walter A. Watson, Robert Turnbull, S. R. Buxton, William A. Jones, John Lamb, A. J. Montague, George G. T. R. Tillet and Don L. Lee. It is a provision of the law that no candidate for Congress and other offices not local must send to the State Treasurer, with notices of candidacy, the sum of a percent of the first year's salary for the office to which he aspires.
